Tourists

Mrs. F. M. McKay will entertain the Tourist Club Friday.

Nondescript

Mrs. I. J. Linley is the hostess for the Nondescript this afternoon.

Card Party

Invitations are being received in Logan to a big card party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Wetzel, of Columbus. Mrs. Wetzel will be remembered as Miss Leatha Martin.

Taffy Pulling.

Miss Mabel Blosser entertained her Sunday School class with a taffy pulling last Friday evening at her residence on Glenview Heights. The young people were delightfully entertained with music and games of interesting nature. The hostess was assisted by Miss Ruth Sweeney and Mrs. Roy L. Dupler.

50th Wedding Anniversary

Tuesday, March 5, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Patton's 50th wedding anniversary was celebrated. About 75 persons, friends and relatives, gathered at their home in Haydenville for a surprise. The surprise was complete and every one was in tune for a happy time. In the course of the day a purse was presented containing $82 in gold. Six persons present attended the wedding 50 years ago.

Five O'clock Dinner

A very handsomely appointed affair, was the dinner given by Mrs. Wm. Cowell, Tuesday evening, complimenting Mrs. Will Eisele. Covers were laid for twenty. After dinner, Euchre was enjoyed, there being five tables of players. Mrs. Eisele won first prize, silver spoon. Mrs. Phil Rochester, second, handmade handkerchief, Mrs. Chas. Rose, third, and Mrs. Bert Weaver, consolation. An invitation by this popular hostess carries with it an assurance of a jolly good time, as the affair of Tuesday evening proved.

Twice Five

A successful social event in the history of the Twice Five Club, was the meeting at the home of Prof. and Mrs. Silverthorn, Tuesday evening. Subject up for discussion was "Do conditions warrant the election of United States Senators by direct vote," and was very ably handled by Mr. Lowry on the negative side and Mr. Harrington taking the affirmative, he being a substitute for Mr. Pettit, who was absent, but had prepared a very able paper. The question was fully settled, but great things are expected in the future, and when the affairs of State and Nation are being discussed, the Twice Five will occupy a prominent place and be heard from. After adjournment, Mrs. Silverthorn served an elegant supper, assisted by Mrs. Mathias. Here the negative side very gracefully united with the affirmative as to the culinary skill of the hostess. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tipton and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Dollison were guests.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Will Huls are very sorry to hear of their having decided to leave Logan in the near future. They expect to locate at or near Los Angeles, California, and make that State their home, providing all the rosy pictures painted of that climate prove true. Best wishes will go with them from a host of friends in the old Buckeye State.

As Nosey Ned stepped into a store in town he saw upon the counter a drawing most artistic and most suggestive. There appeared a large wagon upon which were riding two stalwart fellows, labeled "policemen." The wagon was marked "water wagon." Another in the drawing was a poker table at which two men were sitting playing poker, with beer bottles and glasses handy. These were marked, "(guess)." The general inscription over the whole cartoon was, "We will ride the water wagon, but we will keep one eye on you."

QUESTIONS FOR NEW TEACHERS

There Are a Great Many Brain Puzzlers in the List.

MADE UP BY STATE COMMISSIONER

Examination Tests for Teachers in Elementary Schools—By Their Answers to These Questions Those Who Desire to Teach Show Whether They Are Grounded in the Rudiments of Education.

Following is the list of questions as prepared under direction of the state commissioner of public schools, and submitted at the county examination of teachers March 2 for elementary school certificates:

THEORY AND PRACTICE.

- 1. The first five questions are based on "Rational Living" by Henry C. King. Explain or paraphrase the following proverb: At forty every man is either a fool or a physician. Is it true of the physical or the intellectual life or of both?
2. What is Prof. James's theory of the emotions?
3. What indications of the necessity of abundant physical activity are noticeable during adolescence? How great a part should "muscular" training play in education at this stage?
4. Emphasize on what branches of the school curriculum does the above question suggest?
5. State at least one fact about the philosophy or teachings of two of the following each of whom is constantly referred to by King: Kant, Lotze, James, Stanley Hall, Leakey.
6. Name one work on the history of education, two works on the theory and practice of teaching, and two educational journals which should prove valuable to any teacher.
7. State one argument for, and one against, the teacher's having control over pupils on the way to and from school.
8. Should all children be punished alike for the same offense? Why or why not?
9. Do you believe it advisable to adhere closely to a set daily program? Why, or why not?
10. What studies are ordinarily pursued in the fifth grade of a graded school? How much home study would you expect of pupils in this grade?

GRAMMAR.

- 1. Looking out, there was scarce 2 anything to be seen but the lashing snow and the falling rain.
2. When they finally attempted 5 to face it to go to the rescue of 6 the cattle overtaken in the field, 7 found the air filled with fine, powdery flakes mixed with the dirt.
8 caught up from the plowed land by 10 a terrific blast which moved almost 11 ninety miles an hour and made it 12 impossible to see twenty yards 13 ahead.
The first seven questions refer to the selection given above.
1. What kind of sentence is the above? Name (as to subject and predicate) all principal clauses. Classify all subordinate clauses.
2. Give the syntax of four infinitives.
3. Point out all the different uses of the participle found in the selection.
4. Classify six adverbs.
5. Parse in full it (5) and it (11).
6. What does each of the following modify: scarce (1), mixed (8), ninety miles (11), an hour (11), twenty yards (12)?
7. Parse in full anything (2), but (2), and impossible (12).
8. What are the principal parts of a verb? Why are they so called?
9. Write sentences illustrating the use of conjunctive adverbs, correlative conjunctions.
10. Classify (as to part of speech) each of the italicized words in the following: "What but praise can be ascribed to those whose lives were freely given for their country that perpetual freedom might be ours."

ARITHMETIC.

- 1. Define the following: decimal fraction, below par, area, compound denominate number, cancellation.
2. How many feet board measure are there in a plank 17 ft. long, 22 in. wide at one end, 13 in. wide at the other, and 3 in. thick?
3. A commission merchant sold a consignment of flour and pork for $25,372; he charged $132 for storage and 6% commission. What were the net proceeds of the sale?
4. A druggist bought 5 pounds of opium by avoirdupois weight at $8 a pound, and sold it by apothecaries' weight at $1 per ounce. How much did he gain?
5. An army lost in one battle 2,17 of its men and in another battle 2,7 of the remainder, after which there were 15,120 men left. How many men were there in the original army? Analyze.
6. A man engaged in business with a capital of $22,800, is making 10% per annum on his capital; but on account of ill health he quits his business, and loans his money at 6 1/4%. How much does he lose in 2 yr. 5 mo. 10 da.?
7. At what time between four and five o'clock are the hands of a clock together?
